

AAUW Sacramento Capital Ideas February 2016

---

Speech Trek 2016 this February 20! by Liz Jordan and Shari Beck

Speech Trek

Come one and all to hear this year's high school students compete in original five- to six-minute speeches for prizes of $400, $200, and $100. Mark your calendars. This event will leave you smiling.

Saturday, February 20

9 a.m. – Noon

Valley Hi-North Laguna Library Community Room

7400 Imagination Parkway

Sacramento, 95823

Off Bruceville Road and across from Cosumnes River College

Although admission is free, please register online with Eventbrite or contact Dawn Boyd (email darnone1@att.net or call (c)925-321-9946 or (h)916-942-9227) so that we may plan on your attendance.

This year the complete topic question asks: What is gender bias and inequality? What is its impact on people? Why should organizations such as AAUW continue to work to change its practice?

Students are all from the regular nine high schools in the Elk Grove Unified School District. For more information, contact:

Liz Jordan, 916-354-9608, lizjord@msn.com

Shari Beck, 916-451-5143, gsbeck@surewest.net

Ann Arneill-Py, 916-942-9227, ann@arneill-py.sacramento.ca.us

Mary Ann Fleming, 916-688-3417

February Programming: A Talk with Julie Steinberg by Linda Patterson

Julie Steinberg is the guest speaker for the Feb. 25 Sacramento Branch Program. She will speak at 7 p.m. in the Carmichael Library Meeting Room, 5605 Marconi Ave., on the topic, "A Mother's Journey with her Daughter as they Faced Mental Illness." Steinberg is a member of the clergy at Congregation B'nai Israel in Sacramento.

She has been enriching B'nai Israel's education programs and worship services for more than 16 years. She has an extensive background in both music and counseling.

She began her career in music as a young girl in the Peninsula Temple Sholom Youth Choir in Burlingame, where she also sang for many years in a quartet with Temple Sholom's Cantor Barry Reich. She studied music at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music and Indiana University.

Steinberg holds a master's degree in social work and served as a social worker for Jewish Family Services in Sacramento, working with seniors and families in the Sacramento region. She is married to former State Senate President Pro Tem and Sacramento Mayoral candidate Darrell Steinberg and is the mother of mental health advocate Jordana Steinberg and a son, Ari.

In August 2014, Jordana Steinberg was featured the Sacramento Bee feature story, "Jordana Steinberg: 'A Story of Overcoming' Mental Illness." "It's a story of overcoming, not hardship," Jordana said in the article.

Please join AAUW Sacramento Branch members to hear Julie share her experiences as a mother in helping her daughter on this journey.

Please register for free on EviteBrite (on our website) or by email to Dawn Boyd, darnone1@att.net. Refreshments will be provided.

Save the Date for March 10 by Linda Patterson

When: Thursday, March 10

What: Sacramento Branch Meeting and Program

“Human Trafficking in the Sacramento Region”

The Sacramento area and the Central Valley is a hotspot for human trafficking. Federal agents working out of the FBI’s Sacramento field office and local law enforcement in June 2014 rescued nine underage girls working as prostitutes and nabbed seven pimps as part of the Bureau’s Operation Cross Country program, which recovers exploited children. This was the sixth-highest total of recoveries of the FBI’s 54 field offices, officials said at the time.

The Sacramento County District Attorney’s Office has set up a special Task Force to address the issue with the public. “It’s up to us to admit that Sacramento has an issue,” said Sacramento Mayor Pro Tem Angelique Ashby in a recent Sacramento Bee article. “An issue equates to an opportunity – an opportunity to be a leader.”

Come hear what is being done to curb these crimes in our community

Guest Speakers: Jenny Williamson, Executive Director, Courage Worldwide; Jan Scully, Founder and Director, Family Justice Center; Holly Gibbs, survivor and health educator at Dignity Healthcare; and Sonia Satchell, Deputy District Attorney, Sacramento District Attorney’s Office and member of the Human Trafficking Task Force

Where: St. Mark’s United Methodist Church, 2391 St. Mark’s Way, Sacramento

Time: Doors open at 6:15 p.m., Program begins at 7:00 p.m. and ends at 9:30 p.m.

Sponsors/Co-Sponsors: AAUW Sacramento Branch, AAUW California State University Sacramento Branch, Department of Human Assistance, National Council of Jewish Women, Interfaith Council of Greater Sacramento, St. Mark’s United Methodist Church, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc. Sacramento Alumni Chapter, Davis Branch AAUW, Assistance League, 100 Black Women and the Daughters of Penelope

Recruiting Bakers for Human Trafficking Event – March 10, 2016 by Kathy Papst

Linda Patterson and the program committee are working hard to have a very successful event on human trafficking in the Sacramento area. It promises to be a very informative evening. We anticipate a very good attendance, so as the chairperson of the refreshments for this evening, I am in need of help from our generous members of Sacramento AAUW. I am calling for bakers to bring cookies and sweet breads to this event on March 10. I plan to bake banana bread, poppy seed bread, etc., and freeze them ahead of time for the event.

Please e-mail to me at bookwoman52@gmail.com if you are able to bake three dozen cookies or one or two loaves of your favorite bread for this event. I will need six to eight people who can contribute. I will make sure to send out a reminder a week before the meeting, so that I can coordinate the donations. If you cannot attend the meeting but would like to contribute by baking, please let me know so that I can make arrangements for someone to come to your home to pick up your donation. Thank you so much. I look forward to seeing many of our members at this important meeting.

Exploring Our Interest Groups – Readers’ Theater by Cherril Peabody

Have you always had a secret desire to be an actress? Well, the Readers' Theater interest group can help you explore that heretofore hidden corner of your personality. Every month, October through May, Readers' Theater members read a play – with feeling! – munch on a dessert treat, and generally have a good time together. The plays, which are sent out by the Northridge AAUW Branch, span a wide range of comedies and dramatic offerings. Every December their tradition is to read a children's book called The Best/Worst Christmas Play Ever. In June, they don't act out, they dine out – at lunch.

Readers' Theatre needs some new actors! If you would like to try it out, give long-time chair Diane Petersen a call at 916-214-4644 or email her at ladyetersen@earthlink.net.

What is a Research and Projects Community Action Grant? by Donna Holmes & Marty McKnew

Community Action Grants provide funds to individuals, AAUW branches, and AAUW state organizations as well as local community-based nonprofit organizations for innovative programs or non-degree research projects that promote education and equality for women and girls.

Since the inauguration of the Research and Projects Fund in 1972, AAUW has provided support to hundreds of communities around the United States to advance education and equality for women and girls. Palo Alto branch member Marie Wolbach founded Tech Trek in 1998 with the help of an AAUW Community Action Grant. Since then, AAUW of California has grown Tech Trek to 10 camps on eight college campuses across the state.

Some other recent projects are Camp GirlForward, which provided educational and leadership opportunities to adolescent refugee girls ages 14–19 who have been resettled in Chicago; and Opening the Door to Higher Ed for 1st-Generation Grads, a Florida project to help at-risk high school girls finish high school and go on to college. Of the 32 grants awarded in 2015-16, five are projects in California.

Why should the Sacramento Branch sponsor a Grant?

In 2020 the Sacramento Branch will be celebrating its 100th anniversary. In 2012, to honor this occasion, the Branch committed to raising $75,000 to fund a Community Action Grant. We are enlisting the help of other branches in this effort, as donations to AAUW Funds by our branch members have contributed to the completion of many grants through the years.

Once this endowment is complete, AAUW will invest the money, awarding the interest. Typically the interest from a number of endowments would be combined, as in the Florida example above where seven Florida endowments sponsored the grant. Our branch and its 100 years of service will be honored each time a grant is awarded.

Public Policy Updates by Inger Lindholm and Cherril Peabody

Title IX by Inger Lindholm

Title IX was presented at the last meeting as the most important piece of legislation for advancing women's rights. This occurred 43 years ago, and we continue to celebrate the benefits as an amendment to the Civil Rights Acts under former President Lyndon Johnson.

Many unsung women worked diligently to change the status of women, including college professor Bernice Sandler, Rep. Edith Green (D), and Rep. Patsy Mink (D), a known and respected legislator from Hawaii.

These women and groups such as AAUW, NOW and Women's Equity Action League provided not only the monetary support for research and hearings, but have held the continued spotlight on other inequities. Foremost are the inequities in education but also in sports, jobs, equal pay, and promotions on the job, just to name a few.

We are not there yet. We need to honor these women and our AAUW founders for their continued work and become a part of the process.

“It’s Easy To Become a Two-Minute Activist – Sign Up Today!” by Cherril Peabody

National AAUW has a great program called the Two-Minute Activist, sponsored by the AAUW Action Network. Periodically, they email participants information about a current AAUW focus issue that needs support or opposition and an already prepared letter for you to email to your elected representative. You can add your own comments or just send it as is with your signature and zip code. It truly only takes less than two minutes to sign up. To register, sign up here: <http://www.aauw.org/what-we-do/public-policy/two-minute-activist/>.

The AAUW Public Policy Committee has set a goal of recruiting at least half of our members to participate in this program. If you are already a Two-Minute Activist or if you sign up as a result of this message, please contact Cherril Peabody at capeabody@comcast.net and let her know.