

Sacramento Branch

Member Resource Guide CA0092

In this document we explore with you who we are, what we do, how we function, how to best use your Branch membership, and some of our history. We also include some special terms associated with being a member of AAUW Sacramento.

Who are we?

Fun fact: A group of AAUW members form a “branch”, not a chapter, a club or unit.

AAUW Sacramento is one of more than 100 Branches in California and one of nearly 1000 in the United States. Each of us belongs to AAUW CA and AAUW National. Feel free to explore each website. Recently our sister branch, Citrus Heights American River, fondly known as CHAR, disbanded. Many of their members have chosen to become a part of AAUW Sacramento. Welcome!!

What does AAUW CA do?

AAUW California facilitates California branches in meeting the vision and mission of AAUW by providing programs, education, and resources.

Tell me about AAUW National.

AAUW Mission: Gender Equity & Economic Security.

AAUW Vision: Equity Now Together, we can achieve a vision of equity for women and girls.

AAUW Values: Intersectional, Inclusive, Intergenerational, Empowering.

AAUW values and seeks an inclusive membership, workforce, leadership team and board of directors.

How do people become members of AAUW?

Regular membership is open to anyone holding an Associate, Baccalaureate, or higher degree from a qualified educational institution, or equivalent.

Student affiliation is available to undergraduate and degree-seeking graduate students attending a qualified educational institution.

Free e-students: Undergraduates/Graduates attending AAUW College/University member schools may join nationally for free.

What is the Mission Statement of AAUW Sacramento?

“AAUW Sacramento provides opportunities for women and girls in our community to advocate for equity and to break through barriers.”

What do people do to follow this mission?

We support local, statewide, and national projects such as Local Scholarships, Tech Trek, NCCWSL, and AAUW Funds. We also study and track Public Policy Issues affecting women and girls. Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion principles are supported through Branch Programs and an Equity Book Group that meets via Zoom.

Local Scholarships

Local Scholarships are one of the oldest programs supported by branch members. A candidate for funds must be a woman aged 21 or older who is a resident of Sacramento County, attends any of the four colleges in the Los Rios Community College District, California State University, Sacramento (CSUS) or UC Davis, is pursuing her first BA degree, and has completed 12 or more units of credit from an accredited college or university with a GPA of 3.0 or higher. The selection process considers her educational and career goals as well as her financial need. Recipients are asked to share their experiences with us at a branch event.

Tech Trek

Tech Trek is a STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Math) summer camp designed to develop excitement, and self-confidence in young women who will enter eighth grade in the fall. During the one-week session, campers enjoy hands-on activities in STEM-related fields. All sleeping, eating, instructional and recreational facilities are located on a university campus. Dedicated California AAUW volunteers supervise and run the camps. Currently California's Tech Trek programs are held at seven college/university campuses, hosting a total of nine camps. There is a virtual camp for girls who cannot attend a residential camp, (The very first California Tech Trek camp was created and implemented by Marie Wolbach at Stanford in 1998.) We invite our campers to share their experiences at a branch event.

Public Policy

AAUW's advocacy work builds upon a century of responsible public participation at the local, state, national, and international levels. The member-endorsed Public Policy Program illuminates and advances AAUW's mission of promoting equity and education for all women and girls. AAUW conducts comprehensive advocacy to pursue its public policy priorities, developing and implementing coordinated legislative and grassroots strategies to break through educational and economic barriers so all women have a fair chance.

The AAUW Public Policy and Government Relations Department – with input from the member leaders of the AAUW Public Policy Committee – implements the public policy program. AAUW member advocates across the country speak their minds on AAUW issues and advance AAUW's mission.

How did the pandemic affect AAUW Sacramento?

We learned new skills and mastered new techniques. ZOOM became our tool for communicating and conducting board meetings and more. Signing in to ZOOM is easy. Several members including the Communications Director are happy to help.

Many branch groups still meet over Zoom because it's easier than driving and finding meeting locations for meetings that require only an hour of the group's time.

What does AAUW Sacramento offer its members?

General Membership Meetings are held several times a year. Many involve luncheons and offer a chance to meet one another to discuss interesting topics. Recently we listened to a panel who discussed Ballot Propositions. We enjoy hearing from participants in Tech Trek and our Scholarship program. At the holiday luncheon we often support a charity and/or collect children's books. At a recent meeting sponsored by the Capital Counties Inter-Branch Council we heard from AAUW Fellows. One of the most popular events is our Author's Luncheon.

Members experience intellectual growth, life-long learning, and lasting friendships through our Interest Groups. These groups of branch members choose their own agendas and group leaders. Currently, the Interest Groups include, Art and Architecture, Bridge, Bridge Marathon, Lunch Bunch, Great Decisions, Healthy Heart

Lunch, Mahjong, Readers' Theater, Scrabble Just for Fun, Singles Dining Out, and World Country Study. Prospective members and guests may attend only two interest group meetings in a program year.

Note: be sure to check the latest issue of Capital Ideas and/or AAUW Sacramento for updates on any of these groups.

Art and Architecture

This group was started by our members in 2010. They usually meet the first Friday of the month. They have visited many sites of artistic and architectural interest, including art museums, art in public places, Sacramento art treasures, and studios of artists. Most sites are around Sacramento but the group is known to carpool to surrounding areas for special shows or exhibits.

Bridge and Bridge Marathon

Our Bridge group meets on a regular basis and raises money for Local Scholarships. For the latest information, please check your Capital Ideas

Great Decisions

“Great Decisions” is a book published each year by The Foreign Policy Association. Our four groups read, meet and discuss each of the eight articles during the AAUW year. The articles are timely and well-researched. Discussions are lively and don’t always stay on topic; this adds to the fun of learning. Books are available to be ordered in the fall and arrive in time for distribution at a January meeting. The cost is between $30 and $40 including a discount and shipping. Great Decision groups meet in person and/or by Zoom. Meeting times include both day and evening.

Again, check the latest issue of Capital Ideas and/or AAUW Sacramento for details.

Healthy Heart Lunch

This group meets at local restaurants the Friday after the second Sunday of the month at 11:30 AM. We get to know each other and chatter away about our lives, any AAUW news of interest, current events, and enjoy ourselves as well as lunch. We’ve enjoyed a variety of local restaurants including Matteo’s, Danielle’s, Fabian’s, Scotts’s, Zocalos, and Twin Lotus.

Lunch Bunch

We meet on the second Wednesday at 11:30 at a variety of cafes and restaurants. Come join us!

Mahjong

This group meets the 2nd and 4th Thursday of every month from 1:30 to 3:30 in Citrus Heights. We play a modified version of Asian Mahjong – less complicated and more fun! Donations collected support Tech Trek.

Readers' Theater

In your wildest fantasy are you: Sandra Bullock, Meg Ryan, Julia Roberts, or Meryl Streep in a comedy, drama, or mystery? If you answered YES, then welcome to Reader's Theater. Your fantasy will be played out from October to May on the second Tuesday of the month during the day. The California Drama Exchange has been bringing plays to AAUW interest groups since 1958. Here are a couple of examples of recent plays chosen by the group: “Twelve Angry Men” by Reginald Rose and “Rose’s Dilemma” by Neil Simon.

Scrabble Just for Fun

Scrabble Just for Fun meets the last Monday of the month at 1 PM. Players play two or three to a board and have a great time!

Singles Dining Out

Single members of AAUW Sacramento enjoy gathering on the first Sunday evening of each month. Preferred restaurants are locally owned, relatively accessible to everyone and have adequate parking. Conversations are about AAUW, personal interests, and how to solve the problems of the world. Good friends and good food – it doesn't get much better than that.

World Country Study

This group selects one country and dives into everything: history, biology, women's rights, health care, geography, holidays, and much more. We meet on the 4th Wednesday except November and December.

Is there a way to form a new interest group?

Of course! Contact the Interest Groups Coordinator listed in the Membership Directory. Groups in the past have included Women of the World, Bridge, Needle works, Travel, Film Fans and Spanish Conversation. New groups can be formed if enough interest is shown.

Is there anything for members who love to read and discuss books?

YES! As someone remarked recently – “Where else do you have the opportunity to consider so many ideas and seriously examine them with other people? Where else are you pushed to read and consider things that you wouldn't read on your own? Where else do you make friends and continue your education with such fun?” AAUW Sacramento currently has several book groups. Each function independently in choosing books, when to meet and how to meet. Some are using Zoom. See the latest issue of Capital Ideas for details. Here are a few titles recently chosen: James: A Novel by Percival Everett, That Librarian by Amanda Jones, and Lovely One by Ketanji Brown Jackson.

Is it possible to form a new book group?

Yes! Contact the Book Group Coordinator listed in the Membership Directory.

How does AAUW Sacramento function?

- A Board of Directors governs our Branch. Composed of nine members, we elect a President, a Program Vice President, a Secretary and a Treasurer for a two-year term. The five Directors-at-Large are appointed for a 1-year term.
- We have By-Laws and Policies to guide us. These are found in the Members Only section of our website. The password is in the current directory.
- We have several means of communication. Our newsletter, Capital Ideas, is published ten times a year and distributed electronically. Submit articles no later than the 20th of the month. The AAUW Sacramento Membership Directory contains contact information, educational backgrounds, plus a listing of our programs, current leaders, a zip-code directory, a list of Named Gift Honorees, and a list of Past Presidents. On occasion an “e-mail” blast may be sent with information that may have some urgency. The branch website is maintained on a regular basis.
- Our AAUW Sacramento dues and donations pay for our programs, membership, directory printing, insurance, and officer expenses. A budget is presented to the membership and is approved in the fall.
- For the 2025-2026 membership year, the annual dues are $124: National - $74; CA – $30; Sacramento - $20. A portion of that sum is tax deductible. Dues are published in the annual membership directory.

Are there other AAUW branches in this area?

Yes. There are six: Auburn, Davis, Foothills of El Dorado County, Nevada County, Roseville-South Placer, and Sacramento. Leaders of these branches meet quarterly in the group called Capital Counties Inter-Branch Council (IBC). Once a year the IBC sponsors a joint meeting and invites AAUW Fellows to speak.

May I join another branch as well as AAUW Sacramento?

Yes. You would become a “dual member” of that branch by paying them their local dues. The branch has several dual members. There is also the option of an on-line branch through AAUW CA.

Is AAUW Sacramento active on social media?

Yes. We have Facebook, Instagram, and our own Members-Only page. The passwords for Instagram and Members-only are found in the Sacramento Branch Membership Directory.

And if I still have questions?

We love questions! Feel free to reach out to any of the women in the leadership positions listed on the web page, in Capital Ideas, and/or the Sacramento Branch Membership Directory. (Take a look at the Zip Code Directory - there might be a new friend in your area!)

What does AAUW CA offer in addition to the information on page 1?

California Compass is distributed on a monthly basis. Each month, you will find pertinent news from our national organization; member-focused highlights from our state committees; mission-based book recommendations from your state leaders; links to information on either AAUW National or AAUW California websites that may surprise you; as well as a monthly trivia question about AAUW members throughout history. Answer the question on the simple Google form and be entered into a drawing for a fun prize!

Lobby Days, held in the spring, give members an opportunity to meet with their state representatives and/or their staff to inform them about AAUW and to advocate for their support of priority bills. To participate, one completes a survey and enrolls in mandatory training. Meetings may be in person at the Capitol, in person with staffers, or via Zoom.

At Annual AAUW CA Events we learn the latest at the state level. Even if you don't attend, the program is available on the web page. Usually held on the third Saturday of April, the date of Easter makes some years a challenge.

Webinars are offered periodically on a variety of topics such as how to use Instagram, Lobby Days, and Growing AAUW Membership.

AAUW Fund Events happen in the fall. Presented virtually, the featured speakers have received fellowships or grants from AAUW Funds and share nuggets of their fascinating studies. The topics range from global migration to sustainable environments, refugee studies and more. See who and what your AAUW Fund dollars support. Sign up for one or all.

AAUW National's Start Smart, Work Smart, and Money Smart programs, part of the Women's Economic Empowerment Initiative, are designed to empower women with confidence to successfully negotiate their salary and benefits packages, as well as build skills for financial independence.

Start Smart workshops are specifically designed for college students about to enter the job market.

The goal of this program is to learn how to research your target salary, highlight your accomplishments and find the right words - and the confidence - to negotiate for better benefits and pay. You can sign up for a free in-person workshop or online course, which takes less than two hours to complete and can be done at your own pace.

Negotiating increases your potential to earn more — and can make the difference for paying off loans, supporting your family, buying what you want and need and saving for the future. Participants learn how important it is to build self-awareness of personal value and skills, and to conduct research to determine an appropriate target salary range before a job interview. Perhaps the most beneficial section involved role play negotiating for a job in mock interviews where they had opportunity to practice using the suggested steps and many sample phrases included in the materials.

Work Smart, created for working women, is an interactive workshop that teaches how to confidently evaluate, negotiate, and articulate their worth in the job market. By learning strategies and practicing effective language, participants gain valuable skills they can use throughout their lives.

Money Smart program is aimed at providing all women with the personal finance information they need to ensure their own financial security.

Take a look at AAUW National for a list of dates featuring virtual workshops held this fall.

Public Policy Priorities for 2025 - 2027 are shown on the web page. Three current areas of emphasis are:

- AAUW stands for Education
- AAUW stands for Economic Security
- AAUW stands for Social Justice and Civil Rights

AAUW Funds

Since 1888, AAUW has been one of the largest funders of women's graduate education, investing in women who go on to change the world. Between FY20 and FY25, AAUW awarded $29.6 million in fellowships and grants to 1,538 women and community projects. These exceptional recipients will pursue academic work and lead innovative community projects to empower women and girls.

NCCWSL

This acronym stands for National Conference of College Women Student Leaders. This event is held annually at the University of Maryland. Its goal is to bring together college women from across the country to address important leadership issues of the day.

2 Minute Activist

Make your voice heard in Congress about current issues on their agenda. Take one minute to read about the issue. Use a second minute to personalize the message you send. There is a link and more information on AAUW Sacramento.

Member Benefits

The AAUW webpage lists many member benefits in terms of discounts for travel, car rental, insurance and more. Check them out!! ShopAAUW leads you to shopping opportunities - and a chance to order a customized name badge.

How can I best use my membership in AAUW?

Get involved!! You'll find a community of like-minded women who will welcome you.

What is the history of AAUW National?

AAUW's story begins in 1881, when a small group of female college graduates banded together to open the doors for women's career advancement and to encourage more women to pursue higher education.

One of the first research reports titled "Health Statistics of Women College Graduates" established that, contrary to popular belief, women's health is not adversely affected by attending college.

The history of the American Association of University Women mirrors the progress of women in the United States. As the number of women graduating from college grew, so did our membership.

AAUW has published hundreds of research reports, from an 1885 paper disproving a prevailing myth that college impairs a woman's fertility to, most recently, a study documenting the economic impact of workplace sexual harassment. We have supported the academic achievements of many thousands of scholars, from scientist Marie Curie, the first woman to win a Nobel Prize, to astronaut Judith Resnik, the second woman in travel to space.

Our advocacy efforts have propelled countless new laws, including the Equal Pay Act, first proposed in 1945 and finally passed in 1963; the Title IX amendment in 1972; the Family and Medical Leave Act in 1993; the Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act in 2009; and the Paycheck Fairness Act, which was passed by the U.S.

Representatives in April of 2021 but failed in the US Senate in June.

We've come a long way, but we still have a long way to go. In many ways, the fight for gender equity is just getting started. Join us!

Tell me about the history of AAUW Sacramento.

On February 25, 1920, 41 women met to form the Sacramento Branch of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae (to become AAUW in 1921) after two newcomers to Sacramento had the idea of uniting college graduate women to support education in the local area. The majority of the women were graduates of Stanford or the University of California; others were from Mills, Vassar, Radcliffe, College of the Pacific, etc. Many of the original members were high school teachers such as Belle Cooledge, Sacramento's first woman mayor.

On February 29, 2020, Sacramento Branch of AAUW celebrated its 100th birthday at North Ridge Country Club with a meal, music, and an original skit. We enjoyed hearing congratulations from Kim Churches, AAUW CEO at the time.

The author of this document thanks each person who offered suggestions for improvement.
